 Means Service To Our Communities

Hearst Television celebrates the critical work of local broadcasters and the positive impact on the communities we serve.

Proud to sponsor The NAB Leadership Foundation’s Celebration of Service to America Awards
The National Association of Broadcasters Leadership Foundation and the National Association of Broadcasters welcome you to the annual Celebration of Service to America Awards. Every day, local radio and television stations provide a critical public service by delivering important news, weather and entertainment their communities rely on, as well as a lifeline during times of crisis.

When the mics and cameras turn off, these stations continue their good work through charitable efforts and service to their communities. We are excited to celebrate our first in-person gala in three years with Emmy Award-winning host Mario Lopez and other celebrity guests as we honor local radio and television stations and community leaders for their unwavering commitment to serving their communities.

The annual Corporate Leadership Award will be presented to GEICO this year for their outstanding philanthropic work focusing on education, community development and promoting equity and inclusion in communities across the country. Finally, we are honored to present this year's Leadership Award, our highest individual honor, to two outstanding humanitarians for their achievements in advocacy and community service. We are pleased to honor award winning entertainer, author and entrepreneur Patti LaBelle for her exemplary work as an advocate for adoption, foster care, Big Sisters and the United Negro College Fund. In addition, we will recognize José Andrés, culinary innovator, bestselling author and educator, who has worked across the globe to feed communities in need and reduce food insecurity during times of crisis.

We are honored that the annual Celebration of Service to America Awards will once again be broadcast across the country on local television and radio stations as a special one-hour special beginning July 9 through August 13. We are thankful for the support of our broadcasting community and Disney Media & Entertainment Distribution who are once again helping us recognize and share the stories of our fellow broadcasters.

Thank you for joining us tonight and supporting the NAB Leadership Foundation. Congratulations to this year's winners and thank you to our program sponsors and local television and radio stations for supporting our communities.

We look forward to seeing you next year, Tuesday, June 6, 2023.

The two-time Emmy winner is the host of NBC’s “Access Hollywood” and “Access Daily” and has an overall development deal with NBCUniversal. Lopez concurrently hosts the national iHeartRadio programs “On with Mario Lopez” and “iHeartRadio Countdown with Mario Lopez.” Lopez has made it a yearly tradition to produce and star in a holiday film and this year is no different. The untitled project for Lifetime also stars comedian Cheri Oteri and Lopez’s wife, Courtney Lopez.

Lopez is a constant presence on the pop culture scene with a legion of fans. An actor, New York Times bestselling author, producer and host, Lopez’s prolific career has made him one of the most sought-after personalities in entertainment today. Some of Lopez’s acting credits include “This Is Us,” “Jane the Virgin” and “Nip/Tuck,” among many others. In 2008, Lopez made his Broadway debut as Zach in the revival of “A Chorus Line,” where he met his wife, Courtney. They have three adorable kids, Gia, Dominic and Santino, and two dogs, Salvador and Oscar.

The NAB Leadership Foundation welcomes home American rock and soul artist Maggie Rose to perform the national anthem. Rose is from Washington, D.C., area but now calls Nashville home.

Her latest album, “Have A Seat,” was critically acclaimed by both Rolling Stone and American Songwriter as one of the best albums of 2021 and she was hailed by Rolling Stone as a “Must-See Americana Star.”

Her third album is the work of a phenomenally gifted artist showing the full extent of her power. After years of honing her chops and making her name as a force-of-nature vocalist, the Nashville-based singer/songwriter has dreamed up her own unbridled collision of rock-and-roll, soul, folk, funk and R&B: a fittingly eclectic sound for a musician whose live experience includes opening for Heart and Joan Jett & the Blackhearts, touring as direct support for Kelly Clarkson and festival appearances at Bonnaroo, Newport Folk Fest and Austin City Limits.

Centered on the stunning vocal command she’s revealed in taking the stage at The Grand Ole Opry over 80 times, “Have A Seat” finds Rose approaching her music with more confidence and clarity of vision than ever, ultimately sharing a selection of songs both timeless and urgent.
Brooks Pierce congratulates all nominees and winners of the NAB Leadership Foundation 2022 Service to America Awards.
The Service to America Leadership Award recognizes individuals and organizations responsible for improving the lives of others through extraordinary public service. It is the Foundation’s highest individual honor.

This year, award winning entertainer, author, entrepreneur and humanitarian Patti LaBelle will receive the Service to America Leadership Award from the NAB Leadership Foundation.

LaBelle’s work as a humanitarian is legendary. She is an advocate for adoption, foster care, Big Sisters and the United Negro College Fund, among many other initiatives. While she has reached the heights of success throughout her 60-plus year career, LaBelle has also endured and survived personal strife. Within a 10-year period, she lost her mother, three sisters and best friend to diabetes and cancer. In 1994, she was diagnosed with diabetes and shortly thereafter became a spokesperson for the American Diabetes Association.

It’s a small wonder that LaBelle has time for anything else in between her public service, recording and touring, but she has also written six books, “Don’t Block the Blessings,” “LaBelle Cuisine: Recipes to Sing About,” “Patti’s Pearls,” “Patti LaBelle’s Lite Cuisine,” “Recipes for the Good Life” and “Desserts LaBelle.” Recently, LaBelle released a 20th anniversary edition of her New York Times bestselling cookbook, “LaBelle Cuisine,” featuring three new recipes.

In 2007, she introduced Patti’s Good Life, a successful food and lifestyle brand that offers a variety of frozen comfort foods, breakfast items and desserts, including her world-famous sweet potato pie.

Always a person to take on new challenges, in 2017, LaBelle launched a record label, GPE Records, and released her first jazz album, “Bel Hommage.”

The same motivation that had Patricia Louise Holte blossom from a choir member to lead vocalist for Patti LaBelle & The Bluebelles and later Labelle, to a solo artist, is the same energy that keeps her fire burning at 78 years young.

And the world is thankful that LaBelle’s voice sounds so good to our ears.

“Each year I grow, and that’s a blessing from God. I do what I can do. I do what I feel God has given me the energy to do, so I just go out there and I do it…it’s not about making money because I don’t need money, but I need to sing. With a voice or without, I’ve got to get on that stage.”

- Patti LaBelle

The Service to America Leadership Award recognizes individuals and organizations responsible for improving the lives of others through extraordinary public service. It is the Foundation’s highest individual honor.

This year, esteemed chef, bestselling author, educator and humanitarian José Andrés will receive the Service to America Leadership Award from the NAB Leadership Foundation.

Andrés is highly acclaimed globally for his avant-garde cuisine served through his restaurant collective, ThinkFoodGroup. Twice honored in Time Magazine’s “100 Most Influential People” and a New York Times bestselling author, Andrés was awarded the National Humanities medal, which honors individuals or groups whose work has deepened the nation’s understanding of the humanities, by President Barack Obama in 2015. In 2021, Andrés launched José Andrés Media, which will produce unscripted and scripted television series, books, podcasts and digital content with a focus on stories about the power of food.

Through his nonprofit World Central Kitchen (WCK), Andrés leads humanitarian efforts to feed communities in need and reduce food insecurity during times of crisis. Andrés and his team have served fresh meals to those affected by man-made and natural disasters across six continents, including serving over 3.6 million meals to those affected by Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico in 2017.

Most recently, WCK partnered with local leaders, farmers and restaurants to help those experiencing food insecurity caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and laying the foundation for smarter national food policy. Andrés and WCK have been on the ground in Ukraine cooking nonstop since late February, where they have served nearly 30 million meals.

The NAB Leadership Foundation is proud to present José Andrés with the 2022 Service to America Leadership Award.

“José Andrés is a culinary trailblazer, not only in the kitchen but through his dedication to feeding people and communities in need around the world. When disaster strikes, the World Central Kitchen has stepped in to ensure communities have the strength to rebuild and that no one goes hungry.”

Each year, the NAB Leadership Foundation honors a non-broadcast business with the Corporate Leadership Award, recognizing their extraordinary focus on community service and corporate social responsibility.

GEICO has been a pioneer in the broadcast industry thanks to their memorable advertisements. From their iconic and lovable Gecko to their “Hump Day” and “Tag Team” commercials, GEICO’s relationship with broadcasters is tried and true. In addition to being advertising pioneers, GEICO focuses philanthropic efforts on education, community development and promoting equity and inclusion.

Alongside associates, GEICO has partnered with more than 1,100 nonprofits over the last two decades, donating millions of dollars each year to initiatives that help children, support veterans and promote social equity.

GEICO has established itself as a corporate leader in public service through community partnerships, development projects and conservation efforts. The company has empowered associates from across the country to make a difference and be an advocate in their local communities through GEICO Cares, a program that encourages associates to support local charities.

In 2021 and 2022, the GEICO Philanthropic Foundation and GEICO associates provided more than 3 million meals to families in need through donations to Feeding America. The company also supports various education initiatives, including Shoes that Fit, to provide resources and support for children in need.

The Foundation is honored to present GEICO with the Corporate Leadership Award in recognition of its incredible work to improve communities across the country. Please join us in congratulating and thanking them for their longstanding commitment to helping communities at large.

“Being an engaged and involved corporate citizen is important to us, and we work with supportive partners that help us create sustainable resources for people in need. Authenticity and inclusiveness are paramount as we give back to strengthen communities. We’re excited to extend this philanthropic culture and focus to include the NAB Leadership Foundation as they work to improve diversity and highlight community service.”

– Carl Tims, vice president and chief diversity officer, GEICO
GEICO is committed to strengthening the communities in which our customers and associates live, work, and play.

We’re honored to receive this year’s Corporate Leadership Award.

Thank you, and congratulations to all 2022 NABLF Service to America Honorees.

GEICO is a registered service mark of Government Employees Insurance Company, Washington, DC 20076; a Berkshire Hathaway Inc.
The Service to America Samaritan Award is given to a broadcaster or organization exemplifying the industry’s commitment to using the airwaves efficiently to promote the public interest.

Sen. Gordon H. Smith served as the president and CEO of the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) from November 2009 until his transition to special advisor at the end of 2021.

During his tenure, NAB played a pivotal role on a number of significant issues affecting broadcasters, including the broadcast television spectrum incentive auction, preservation and modernization of the music licensing and copyright system, the rollout of the ATSC 3.0 television standard (NEXTGEN TV), reviews of media ownership rules and the increased dominance of tech platforms in the advertising marketplace.

Sen. Smith also spearheaded several of public service initiatives to help keep America’s local communities safe, informed and connected. In 2013, Sen. Smith oversaw the launch of the OK2Talk campaign, an unprecedented effort to educate millions of Americans on the importance of ending the stigma surrounding mental health issues. In 2020, under Sen. Smith’s leadership, NAB provided public service announcements to radio and TV stations to educate Americans on how to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.

Before joining NAB, Sen. Smith served as a two-term U.S. senator from Oregon. His committee assignments included the Senate Commerce, Science and Transportation Committee, the panel that oversees all broadcast-related legislation. In addition, he served as chairman of a Senate High Tech Task Force, which helped foster his interest in new media and new technology issues.

Born in Pendleton, Ore., Sen. Smith attended college at Brigham Young University, received his law degree from Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles and practiced law in New Mexico and Arizona before returning to Oregon to direct the family-owned Smith Frozen Foods in Weston, Ore. Before his election to the U.S. Senate in 1996, Sen. Smith was elected to the Oregon State Senate, rising to the position of president of that body after only three years.

Sen. Smith and his wife Sharon are the parents of three children and five grandchildren.
